President of Montenegro

Podgorica,
July 23, 2011

Your Royal Majesty,

Please accept the expressions of my deepest condolences on occasion of death of tens of innocent citizens of Norway in the Friday's twin terrorist attacks.

Here in Montenegro we are all deeply affected by the tragic occurrence and we are all with the families of the victims in our thoughts.

No society in the world is not vulnerable to extremist's ideas and actions. The fact that the tragic event took place in Norway, well known as a tolerant and fair society, is a reminder that all of us should join our efforts to battle ideologies of evil infecting minds addictive to those. In the globalised world nobody should doubt that social and religious tolerance has been a prerequisite of a harmonious society, as well as a morally superior approach.

Your Royal Majesty, I wish you good health and success in performing your high duty.

Filip Vujanović
